VIEWS ON NORTH STRADBROKE ISLAND’S FUTURE

(circle answer)

The premier’s plan to stop sandmining by 2027 is a good plan

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

Sandmining should be stopped earlier than 2027

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

Sandmining should be allowed to continue as long as land is properly rehabilitated

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

Sandmining should be allowed to continue as long as high value koala habitat is not destroyed

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

Sandmining should be allowed to continue in old-growth forest areas

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

The use of excess sand after mining to provide cheap sand and jobs in the construction industry of Southeast Queensland is a good thing

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

The premier’s plan to turn Straddie into 80% national park is a good plan

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

A plan that provides 50% national park and allows mixed economic activity and conservation on the remaining 30% is a good alternative plan

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

The indigenous people are fairly compensated for their native title claim in the Premier’s plan

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

The Premier’s plan for indigenous groups to co-manage the national park is a good step

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

Four wheel drive access to Straddie beaches should be banned

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

Recreational fishing on Straddie beaches should be stopped

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

The direct and indirect job losses resulting from stopping sandmining will cause economic problems for the island

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

The premier's plan to create 400 eco-tourism jobs to replace job losses is believable

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

The premier's eco-tourism plan will generate sufficient income to replace the economic benefit from closing sandmining

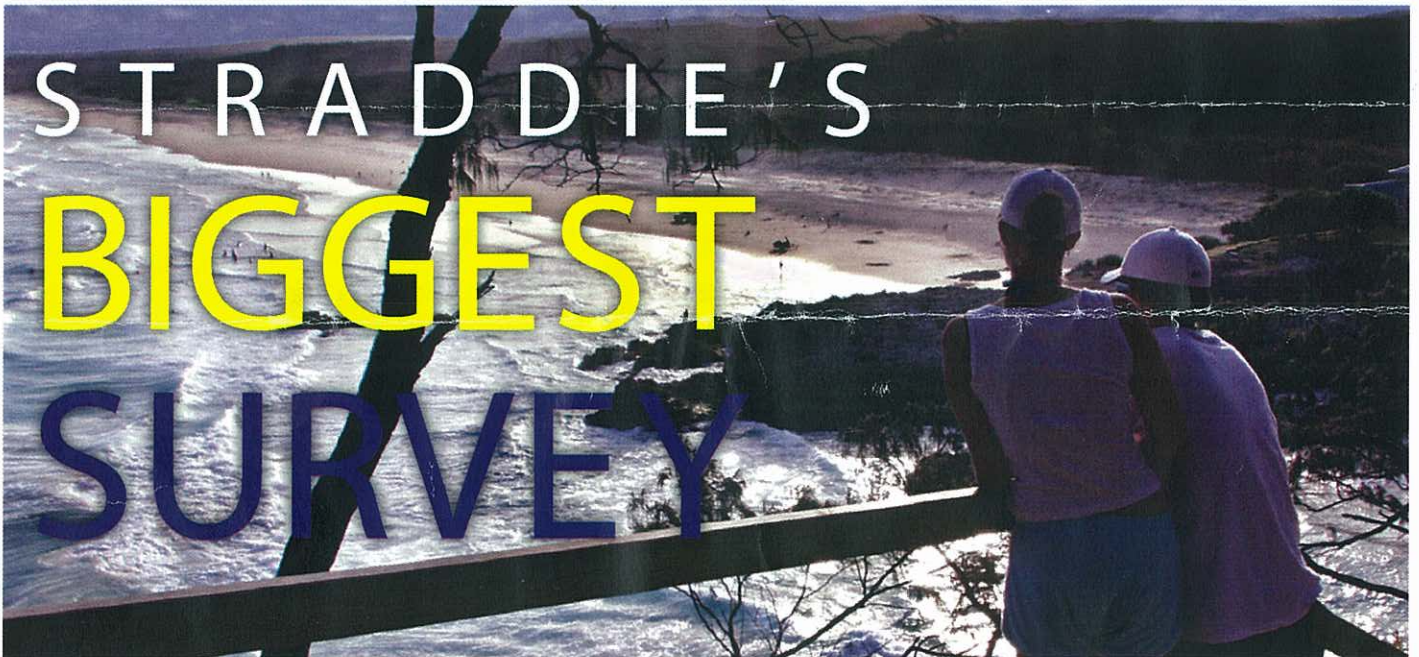

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prior to the premier's announcement I was sufficiently consulted about her decision

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree

IN SUMMARY, I support the Premier's overall plan for the island

Strongly Agree Agree Undecided Disagree Strongly Disagree
